

1. Rusty /'rʌsti/

Adjective - A skill that isn't as good as it once was because of lack of practice.

- My speaking skills are a little rusty.
- If your English is rusty, I'm here to help!

2. Tangled /'tæŋgəld/

Adjective - Twisted together into a confused, untidy mass.

- My computer cords are tangled.
- Can you help me untangle (verb) this rope?
- My hair gets so tangled when it's wet.

3. Crumpled /'krʌmpəld/

Adjective - Crushed into a compact mass or folded up in an irregular way.

- I found a crumpled piece of paper in my bag.
- He crumpled (verb) the rejection letter in frustration.

4. Wrinkled /'rɪŋkəld/

Adjective - Having small lines or folds on the surface.

- The shirt was wrinkled from sitting in the suitcase.
- I'm getting wrinkles (noun).
- She wrinkled (verb) her nose at the smell.

5. Flimsy /'flɪmzi/

Adjective - Light and thin or easily destroyed; weak or difficult to believe

- The chair was too flimsy to hold much weight.
- She gave a flimsy excuse for being late.

Do You Want To Understand Real English And Sound Like A Native English Speaker In Only 90 Days?

JOIN
NOW

The Finally Fluent Academy is a complete program to help you:

- Learn Advanced Vocabulary And Natural Expressions
- Understand Fast-Paced Native English Speakers
- Understand And Use Advanced Grammar
- Improve Your Pronunciation And Reduce Your Accent
- Sound Professional In The Workplace
- Feel Confident Speaking English In Public

If you're ready to finally become fluent in English, click the button below and join today!

YES, I WANT TO JOIN NOW

FINALLY FLUENT ACADEMY

REAL STUDENTS, REAL RESULTS

Engeline Mavazhe It makes me really happy learning on the Finally fluent Academy with Jennifer, because she taught me the best ways to master English naturally. Truly speaking I love and enjoy the life lessons where Jennifer encourages us to express ourselves and inspires us to think in fluent English. I also have the opportunity to download live lessons which I can watch and reply multiple times.

Finally, im feeling more confident, because the finally fluent academy motivates me with posters and quotes which encourage me to keep going and grasp the English language more effectively.

I recommend these lessons to anyone who is looking to improve and learn English. People should feel free to join the finally fluent Academy and get the results they are looking for.

Marcos Céspedes Jennifer, I have no words to describe the academy, since the first day I enrolled, I did it with a lifetime account because you are one of the best teachers, and your methods are excellent, congratulations!

Alfredo Olvera I love The Finally Fluent Academy because it's a very interesting method to learn English and every week it blows me away.

I know I will improve my English and the most important, Jennifer loves teaching English to all her students.

Congratulations Jennifer!

Madistin Fatson I love the finally fluent Academy so much JForrest she's the best teacher ever, so when she's teaching you she's really taking a patience with you, I so like you my teacher ❤️💛💜 God bless you

Nina Barkho 🌟 Jennifer Forrest I'm proud that I can speak without being afraid or shy, and I'm proud that I have a you to teach me.. thank you from button of my heart

Natalia Wilson This week I'm proud of myself for working on Finally Fluent Academy program. Thank you Jennifer for such relevant lessons. They are always interesting and useful!

Wei-ting Chang At the beginning of the year I started from scratch to learn spoken English. So I need to figure out the best way to improve my speaking skills. Fortunately, now I got it which is the finally fluent Academy. So happy to be here. Awesome!

Youri Hak After watching the presentation of the FFA (finally fluent academy) program, I figured out that it could be the best way to improve my english quickly.

Jhoe Jaropojop Lao
8 mins

Jennifer Forrest I watched the record of your live session last night. And I learned alot. I like your teaching style, you give us structure form of the sentences from there it's easy for us to memorized or to learned. You know! I can say I started to gain my confident in speaking English, in just a short period of time thank you Jennifer I highly recommend your Finally Fluent Academy.

Haïssam Assi 🙌 Fantastic!!! Now I got it in no time!!!

Honestly, I really appreciate your method to teach us, you deserve better, you do a fabulous job!!! I feel relax and comfortable when I learn with you...thank you Jennifer Forrest 💙

Love · Reply · 24m · Edited

Devi from India

"Jennifer Forrest is an amazing teacher! Now I'm getting used to speaking naturally and confidently only because of her support and motivation. After joining this Academy you'll feel so comfortable and see a massive improvement in your communication skills."

Oner Hazapeiko
Re: 📅 The Weekly Lessons
To: Jennifer Forrest

Hi Jenifer! Thank you for your care about me. I must say how I continue being amazed and fascinated by your course. I consider your course as a piece of art in the field of educational programmes. I am going to revise the chapter A which is concerned with phrasal verbs & idioms once more. And I hope to proceed to Weekly Lessons soon. Forgive me for my mistakes. I hope I will get rid of them with your help. Kind regards Oleg Nazarenko 😊

Apurba Roy 🙌 This week I'm proud to see the effect of joining the Final Fluent Academy and becoming more confident while speaking

Titu Păcurar ... finally I can understand and speak to English speakers, I can watch movies and everything I want in English language. After years of struggling I found the best teacher ever with the best methods of teaching. It was one of my best decision joining Jennifer's Academy! I'm still excited about and also happy for everyone who is part of this amazing community! Proud of you, guys! 🙌🙌

YES, I WANT TO JOIN NOW

6. Feisty /'faɪsti/

Lively, determined, and courageous.

- My cat was very feisty as a kitten.
- He feistily (adverb) defended his opinion.

7. Savvy /'sævi/

Adjective - Practical knowledge and understanding.

- She's quite savvy about digital marketing.
- Are you tech savvy?
- His business savvy (noun) helped him succeed.

8. Dull /dʌl/

Adjective - Lacking interest or excitement.

- This lesson is so dull.
- This lesson isn't dull! It's exciting/engaging!

9. Vivid /'vɪvɪd/

Adjective - Brightly colored; Producing powerful feelings or strong, clear images in the mind.

- I love the vivid colors in this painting.
- I had a vivid dream last night.
- He vividly (adverb) remembers his wedding day.

10. Hideous /'hɪdiəs/

Adjective - Extremely ugly or unpleasant.

- That hideous statue gave me vivid nightmares.
- The bathroom was pink when we moved in. It was hideous.

15 Everyday Words For Excellent English

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

11. Frugal /'fru:gəl/

Adjective - Careful to use only as much money (resources) as necessary.

- Warren Buffet is a billionaire, but he's very frugal.
- My parents live a frugal life.

12. Lavish /'lævɪʃ/

Adjective - More than enough, necessary, reasonable.

- They're usually frugal, but their wedding was lavish.
- Our new office is lavish. It even has an indoor swimming pool!

13. Vigorous /'vɪgərəs/

Adjective - Strong, healthy, and full of energy.

- He's known for his vigorous workout routines.
- She vigorously (adverb) defended the company against allegations of fraud.

14. Tenacious /tə'neɪʃəs/

Adjective - Persistent, determined, or stubborn.

- Her tenacious attitude helped her become fluent.
- She tenaciously (adverb) pursued her goals.
- Her tenacity (noun) is her greatest strength.

15. Preposterous /pri'pɑstərəs/

Adjective - Very silly, stupid

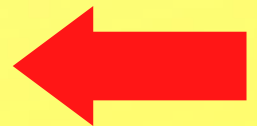

- That idea is preposterous!
- I'm not going to unsubscribe. That's preposterous!

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

1. Bogus /'bʊgəs/

Adjective - Not genuine; fake or false.

- The police discovered that the ID was bogus.
- She was upset when she realized the deal was completely bogus.
- JForrest English isn't bogus.

2. Fishy /'fɪʃi/

Adjective - Suspicious or not trustworthy.

- There's something fishy about his story.
- Her explanation sounded fishy.
- I knew the deal was bogus because he was fishy.

3. Scramble /'skræmbəl/

Verb - To move or act quickly or in a hurried, disorderly way.

- If we don't scramble, we'll miss the flight!
- She had to scramble to finish the project before the deadline.
- The team scrambled to find a replacement after the speaker canceled.

4. Hunch /hʌntʃ/

Noun - A feeling or guess based on intuition rather than known facts.

- I had a hunch the deal was bogus.
- She had a hunch her story was fishy.
- My hunches are usually right.

5. Cringe /krɪndʒ/

Verb - To feel embarrassed or uncomfortable, often as a reaction to something awkward or unpleasant.

- I cringe every time I remember spilling coffee on everyone in a job interview.
- He cringed at the thought of having to give a speech in public.
- Just thinking about that fishy guy makes me cringe.

📌 To Be Cringe (Cringeworthy) - Adjective

- Her response was so cringe! (= Her response made me cringe).

6. Aloof /ə'luːf/

Adjective - Not friendly or warm; distant and detached.

- She seems aloof, but she's just shy.
- His aloof attitude made it hard to get to know him.
- Teachers can't come across as aloof.

7. Fluster /'flʌstər/

Verb - To make someone nervous, confused, or agitated.

- She gets flustered easily when she travels.
- The unexpected question flustered the speaker.
- The speaker was flustered by the unexpected question.

8. Quirk /kwɜːrk/

Noun - A strange/unusual trait or characteristic of someone or something.

- One of her quirks is that she always wears mismatched socks.
- The house had its quirks, like doors that creaked at night.
- His quirky (adjective) sense of humor makes him stand out.

9. Trivial /'trɪviəl/

Adjective - Of little value or importance.

- Don't waste time on trivial matters when the deadline is approaching.
- The argument was over something so trivial.

📌 A trivial problem is easy to solve.
- Learning English isn't trivial.

10. Vent /vent/

Verb - To express strong negative emotions (anger, frustration) in a forceful or uncontrolled way.

- She needed to vent about her stressful day at work.
- Call me if you need to vent about your in-laws!
- The meeting was a waste of time. The client vented about trivial matters the whole time.

11. Nudge /nʌdʒ/

Verb - To push someone or something gently, often with an elbow, to get their attention or encourage them to do something.

- She gave him a gentle nudge to remind him to speak up.
- He nudged the door open with his foot when his hands were full.
- My teacher's words gave me the nudge (encouragement) I needed to start speaking in public.

12. Glitch /glɪtʃ/

Noun - A minor problem or fault that causes a temporary error. (Often used with technological problems.)

- There was a glitch in the system that caused a delay.
- The new video game still has a few glitches.
- The glitch in the software was fixed before the deadline.

13. Posh /pɒʃ/

Adjective - Elegant, stylish, or luxurious.

- They stayed at a posh hotel during their vacation.
- She always dresses in posh outfits for special occasions.
- The restaurant had a posh atmosphere and excellent service.

14. Blunder /'blʌndər/

Noun – A careless or stupid mistake.

- He made a huge blunder by sending the email to the wrong person.
- The blunder cost them millions in lost revenue.
- She tried to laugh off the blunder, but it was too cringeworthy (cringe)!

15. Clumsy /'klʌmzi/

Adjective – Awkward in movement or handling things, often leading to accidents or mistakes.

- Because I'm clumsy, I'm not allowed to wash certain dishes.
- The clumsy waiter spilled coffee all over the table.
- She felt clumsy wearing high heels for the first time.

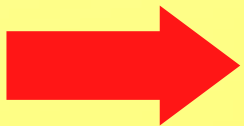

What's Next?

Click Here to See If You Know THESE 15 More Advanced Words

Click Here To Subscribe on YouTube!

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

1. Pull Off

To succeed in doing something difficult or unexpected.

- Getting a high mark on your IELTS is challenging, but I know you'll pull it off.
 - It = succeed at getting a high mark on your IELTS.
- If I have a great teacher, I know I'll pull it off!

2. Take Off

To become successful or popular.

- My YouTube channel didn't take off at first, but I was persistent and consistent. And eventually, it took off.
 - ...and eventually, I pulled it off.
 - It = creating and growing a successful YouTube channel.
- If you're consistent, your English fluency and confidence will take off!

3. Put Off

To delay or postpone doing something.

- She put off scheduling her IELTS until she mastered phrasal verbs.
 - = She'll schedule her IELTS once she masters phrasal verbs.
- Let's put off the meeting until after the long weekend.
- Are we still cleaning out the garage this weekend?
 - Let's put it off until winter.

4. Turn Around

To take a business, plan or system from not successful to successful.

- The new manager turned the marketing department around within a year.

15 Phrasal Verbs for Excellent English

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

- She turned around her speaking skills by practicing speaking every day.
 - And her excellent communication skills helped her career take off!

5. Call Off

To cancel something that was planned or scheduled.

- The company had to call off the conference because of the hurricane.
 - The conference will not happen.
- The company had to put off the conference because of the hurricane.
 - The conference will happen at a later date.
- She called off her birthday party when she got sick.

6. Catch Up On

To do something that you have not been able to do recently.

- I need to catch up on your lessons!
- This weekend I caught up on my chores.

7. Blurt Out

To say something suddenly and without thinking, often something that shouldn't have been said.

- There's no way we'll pull that goal off!
- Why did I blurt that out! I have such a big mouth!
- I accidentally blurted out that you're looking for a new job.

8. Comb Through

To analyze or review something carefully and completely.

- Before you submit your CV, you should comb through it to make sure there are no errors.
- I combed through this entire textbook to prepare for my IELTS.
- She spent the whole afternoon combing through old family photos to create a scrapbook.

9. Skim Through

To review something quickly, without going into detail.

- The consultant has an impressive background, but I only skimmed through his proposal.
- She skimmed through the recipe to make sure she had all the ingredients.

10. Gloss Over

To briefly mention something without going into detail, often to avoid discussing it thoroughly.

- The manager glossed over the consultant's rude comment.
 - I appreciate your perspective. Anyway, let's review the upcoming conference.
- My brother always glosses over why his girlfriend doesn't come to family gatherings.

11. Pan Out

To have a successful outcome.

- The strategy didn't pan out, so we need to revise our approach.
- Let's see how our kitchen reno pans out before we start the bathroom.

12. Drift Off

To gradually become less focused or to fall asleep unintentionally, often while engaged in an activity.

- Sometimes I drift off when my husband starts talking about his work.
- I must have drifted off during the movie.

13. Dip Into

To spend a portion of a reserve or savings, often temporarily.

- The company had to dip into its emergency fund to cover the unexpected expenses.
- We had to dip into our savings to cover the cost of the car repair.

14. Pick Up

To learn something informally or casually, often through exposure rather than instruction.

- Did you take coding classes?
 - No, I just picked it up over the years.

15 Phrasal Verbs for Excellent English

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

15. Shake Off

To get rid of something, such as a problem or mistake, and move on from it.

- We're down 3 points. We need to shake it off and play better than ever.
- I know I made a few grammar mistakes during my spoken exam, but I just shook them off. And I passed!

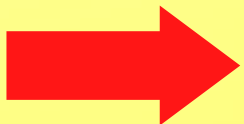

What's Next?

Click Here to See If You Know THESE 15 More Advanced Words

Click Here To Subscribe on YouTube!

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

15 Binomial Pairs

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Quiz Questions:

1. Thankfully the speech wasn't long. It was short and _____.
2. She put her _____ and soul into writing her first book.
3. Call me when you get home so I know you're safe and _____.
4. She enjoys the _____ and bustle of living in New York city.
5. I rented a cabin in the woods for some _____ and quiet.
6. The two athletes were neck and _____ in the race.
7. You have to help your cousin, he's your _____ and blood!
8. Sorry I missed your call. I was out and _____ all afternoon.
9. He promised to take me to the airport but then left me high and _____
10. Learning English has its _____ and downs.
11. First and _____, we need to establish trust.
12. I'm the client so it's my way or the _____.
13. It's my wedding and I want to keep it no _____, no muss.
14. The prize is yours. You won the game fair and _____.
15. You won't improve your English skills overnight, but you will see improvements step _____ step.

15 Binomial Pairs

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Quiz Answers

1. Thankfully the speech wasn't long. It was short and sweet.
Short and sweet (adjective) – Concise, without unnecessary details.

📌 Used positively

- The meeting was short and sweet, so we had time to grab a coffee.
- Let's keep this short and sweet.

2. She put her heart and soul into writing her first book.
Heart and soul (noun) – One's full dedication, passion, energy.

- I hope my students see that I put my heart and soul into my lessons.
- I put my heart and soul into learning English.

3. Call me when you get home so I know you're safe and sound.
Safe and sound (adjective) - Unharmed and in good condition.

- Despite the accident, the passengers were safe and sound.

📌 To be cautious

- Just to be safe and sound, let's double-check the figures before submitting the report.

4. She enjoys the hustle and bustle of living in New York city.
Hustle and bustle (noun) – Busy, noisy, chaotic situation

- There was so much hustle and bustle leading up to Taylor Swift's concert.

5. After all that hustle and bustle, I rented a cabin in the woods for some peace and quiet.
Peace and quiet (noun) – Calm

- After a busy week of traveling, she needed some peace and quiet.
- I love visiting my family, but I also miss the peace and quiet.

15 Binomial Pairs

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

6. The two athletes were neck and neck in the race.

Neck and neck (adjective) - In a close contest, with no clear leader.

- The election was neck and neck until the last votes were counted.
- Our companies were neck and neck until we launched a new website.

7. You have to help your cousin, he's your flesh and blood!

Flesh and blood (noun) - Related by blood, a family member.

- Of course you'll always have a place to stay. You're my flesh and blood!
- I'm happy to loan you the money. You're my flesh and blood!

8. Sorry I missed your call. I was out and about all afternoon.

Out and about (adjective; noun) - Active and going to different places outside of home.

- After being sick for weeks, it's so nice to be out and about again!
adjective

📌 Used to be purposely vague about where you were

- Where were you?
 - Oh just out and about.
noun

9. He promised to take me to the airport but then left me high and dry.

High and dry (adjective) - Left in a difficult situation without help.

- The company's closure left many employees high and dry.
- My car broke down and left me high and dry in the middle of nowhere.

10. Learning English has its ups and downs.

Ups and downs (noun) - Periods of positive (success, happiness) and negative (failure, sadness).

📌 Commonly used as comfort to someone.

- All relationships have their ups and downs. You'll get through this!
- I'm so sorry you lost your job! Life has its ups and downs.

15 Binomial Pairs

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

11. First and foremost, we need to establish trust.

First and foremost (adjective) - Most importantly, before anything else.

- First and foremost, we need to review the budget.
- First and foremost, make sure you subscribe so you're notified when I post a new lesson!

12. I'm the client so it's my way or the highway.

My way or the highway (noun) - An ultimatum meaning one must agree to someone's demands or leave.

- It's my way or the highway when it comes to this project.
- I know we're flesh and blood, but if you're living in my house, it's my way or the highway.

13. It's my wedding and I want to keep it no fuss, no muss.

No fuss, no muss (adjective) - Simple and without any trouble or complications.

- 📌 A fuss - a show of emotion that is unnecessary or greater than the situation deserves.
- She made a big fuss about the deadline in front of the client.
 - Let's hope the meeting goes well with no fuss, no muss.

14. The prize is yours. You won the game fair and square.

Fair and square (adjective) - Honestly, without cheating or trickery.

- They suspected she cheated but it turns out she won the competition fair and square.
- She's the boss's flesh and blood, but she earned the promotion fair and square.

15. You won't improve your English skills overnight, but you will see improvements step by step.

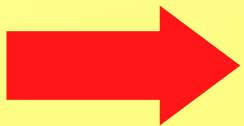

Step by step (adverb; adjective) - Gradually, in small stages, or one stage at a time.

- The team worked through the problem step by step (adverb).
- She provided clear step-by-step (adjective) instructions.

Click here to subscribe for more free lessons!

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

15 Collocations

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Quiz Questions:

1. He promised he wouldn't lie, but he decided to _____ his promise.

- a) skip
- b) break
- c) undue

2. A great handshake can leave a _____ impression.

- a) lasting
- b) wondering
- c) mischievous

3. She has a _____ workload this month and needs extra help.

- a) big
- b) loud
- c) heavy

4. After finishing the project, she finally has a _____ workload.

- a) mild
- b) slim
- c) light

5. To succeed, you need to be proactive and _____ initiative.

- a) take
- b) make
- c) develop

6. The campaign started slow but began to _____ momentum.

- a) win
- b) gain
- c) beat

15 Collocations

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

7. Her speech had a _____ impact on everyone in the room.

- a) protruding
- b) picturing
- c) profound

8. In order to pass the inspection, our products need to _____ standards.

- a) gain
- b) meet
- c) take

9. The proposal was accepted by an _____ majority of the team.

- a) overwhelming
- b) inclusive
- c) overt

10. We had a _____ discussion about the project challenges.

- a) fruit
- b) fairest
- c) frank

11. He decided to _____ responsibility for his actions.

- a) take
- b) make
- c) acquire

12. The board will _____ approval for the new policy next week.

- a) sought
- b) grant
- c) ask

15 Collocations

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

13. Both parties finally reached a _____ agreement.

- a) mutual
- b) neighboring
- c) close-knit

14. The project had a _____ influence on the younger team members.

- a) pretty
- b) positive
- c) penny

15. By introducing this new feature, the company gained a _____ advantage.

- a) competitor
- b) competitive
- c) competition

15 Collocations

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Quiz Answers:

1. He promised he wouldn't lie, but he decided to break his promise.

- a) skip
- b) break
- c) undue

To break a promise - To fail to do what one has promised to do.

5 years ago I promised to post a new English lesson every week on my YouTube channel, and I haven't broken that promise.

2. A great handshake can leave a lasting impression.

- a) lasting
- b) wondering
- c) mischievous

A lasting impression - An effect, feeling, or memory that remains in one's mind for a long time.

This lesson left a lasting impression on me.

3. She has a heavy workload this month and needs extra help.

- a) big
- b) loud
- c) heavy

A heavy workload – A large amount of work.

It's hard to study English because of my heavy workload.

15 Collocations

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

4. After finishing the project, she finally has a light workload.

- a) mild
- b) slim
- c) light

A light workload – A small amount of work.

Now that I have a light workload, I can watch all your lessons!

5. To succeed, you need to be proactive and take initiative.

- a) take
- b) make
- c) develop

To take initiative – The first to take action to achieve a goal or solve a problem.

He took initiative to find a speaking partner.

6. The campaign started slow but began to gain momentum.

- a) win
- b) gain
- c) beat

To gain momentum - To progress or move forward at an increasing pace.

As my English fluency and confidence grew, I gained momentum in my career.

7. Her speech had a profound impact on everyone in the room.

- a) protruding
- b) picturing
- c) profound

A profound impact - A very significant or deep impact.

My childhood teacher had a profound impact on my English skills.

15 Collocations

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

8. In order to pass the inspection, our products need to meet standards.

- a) gain
- b) meet
- c) take

To meet a standard - To reach the expected level of quality or requirements.

All products must meet safety standards before being sold.

9. The proposal was accepted by an overwhelming majority of the team.

- a) overwhelming
- b) inclusive
- c) overt

An overwhelming majority - A very large percentage or proportion, 75% or more.

An overwhelming majority of students prefer learning English online.

10. We had a frank discussion about the project challenges.

- a) fruit
- b) fairest
- c) frank

A frank discussion – One that is open, honest and straightforward.

We need to have a frank discussion about the client's expectations.

11. He decided to take responsibility for his actions.

- a) take
- b) make
- c) acquire

To take responsibility – To accept responsibility.

I take full responsibility for the project delay.

15 Collocations

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

12. The board will grant approval for the new policy next week.

- a) sought
- b) grant
- c) ask

To grant approval – To officially agree to or allow something.

The team needs to wait until the director grants approval.

13. Both parties finally reached a mutual agreement.

- a) mutual
- b) neighboring
- c) close-knit

A mutual agreement – One that all people involved accept.

We reached a mutual agreement to reduce the budget.

14. The project had a positive influence on the younger team members.

- a) pretty
- b) positive
- c) penny

A positive influence – One that leads to improvements.

Learning English has had a positive influence on my life.

15. By introducing this new feature, the company gained a competitive advantage.

- a) competitor
- b) competitive
- c) competition

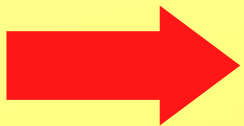

A competitive advantage – Something that allows someone to outperform.

Being fluent in English gives you a competitive advantage in today's global world.

Click here to subscribe for more free lessons!

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

1. Grim /grim/

Adjective - Extremely bad, worrying, or without hope.

The news about the economic downturn was grim.

His expression turned grim when he heard the bad news.

The weather forecast this weekend looks grim.

2. Baffle /'bæfəl/

Verb - To result in total confusion.

The results baffled the scientists.

She was baffled by his decision to quit.

Phrasal verbs often baffle students.

3. Demeanor /di'mi-nər/

Noun - One's way of looking and behaving.

Having a patient demeanor is an important quality for teachers.

Despite his serious demeanor at work, he has a great sense of humor.

The manager's friendly demeanor made the new employees feel welcome.

4. Camaraderie /ˌkʌməˈrædəri/ /kʌmˈrædəri/

Noun - Mutual trust and friendship among people who spend a lot of time together.

The camaraderie among the team was evident.

They enjoyed the camaraderie of working together.

The trip was filled with laughter and camaraderie.

5. Intimidating /ɪnˈtɪmɪˌdeɪtɪŋ/

Adjective - Making you feel frightened or nervous.

Speaking with native speakers can be intimidating.

Her intimidating demeanor made everyone uneasy.

Moving to a new city alone is intimidating.

6. Prevalent /ˈpreɪvələnt/

Adjective - Very common, happening often, widespread

The flu is prevalent during the winter months.

Smartphones have become prevalent in today's society.

Droughts are prevalent in this area.

7. Blatant /'bleɪtənt/

Adjective - When doing a bad thing intentionally, openly.

His blatant disregard for the rules got him into trouble.

It's blatant that you're trying to cheat on the exam.

The company was fined for blatant violations of safety regulations.

8. Resolute /'rez.ə.lu:t/

Adjective - Determined in character, action, or ideas.

She remained resolute in her decision to pursue a new career.

Despite the challenges, he was resolute in his goals.

Her resolute attitude inspired her team to keep going.

9. Hinder /'hɪn.də/

Verb - To limit one's ability or the development of something.

His knee injury hindered his training schedule.

Poor weather conditions can hinder outdoor activities.

The lack of proper equipment will hinder our project.

10. Obstacle /'əbstəkəl/

Noun - Something that blocks one's way or prevents or hinders progress.

The biggest obstacle to their success was a lack of funding.

How can we overcome these obstacles?

Traffic is a major obstacle during my morning commute.

11. Circumvent /ˌsɜː.kəm'vent/

Verb - To find a way around an obstacle, in a clever or illegal way.

How did you circumvent getting a visa?

The hacker circumvented the security system.

They tried to circumvent the rules.

12. Exacerbate /ɪg'zæs.ə.beɪt/

Verb - To make a problem, bad situation, or negative feeling worse.

His actions exacerbated the situation.

Her comment exacerbated the conflict.

The power outage exacerbated the riots.

13. Nuance /'nu:.ɑ:ns/

Noun - A subtle difference in meaning, expression, or sound.

Understanding the nuances of English idioms can greatly improve your fluency.

The nuances in pronunciation can change the meaning of words.

English grammar is filled with nuances.

14. Disdain /dis'deɪn/

Noun - The feeling that someone or something is unworthy of one's attention, support or respect.

Maria's disdain for her ex-husband is blatant.

He spoke about his competitor with disdain.

Disdain for the new policy was evident among the employees.

15. Pivotal /'pɪvə təl/

Adjective - Of crucial importance in relation to the development or success of something else.

The decision was pivotal to the company's future.

He played a pivotal role in the negotiations.

Her speech was a pivotal moment in the campaign.

JForrest English is pivotal to my English fluency.

15 Words for Excellent English
Click Here to Watch on YouTube

What's Next?

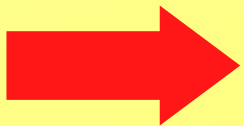

Keep Improving Your English by 600 Words To Your Vocabulary!

Click Here To Watch The Lesson Now!

Click Here To Subscribe on YouTube!

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

40 Synonyms for Advanced English

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Show – Demonstrate

Used when displaying or proving something, often in presentations or studies.

- The data clearly showed the trend.
 - The data clearly demonstrated the trend.
-

Mostly – Predominantly

Used to describe something that happens or exists in most cases, common in academic or professional contexts.

- The area is mostly residential.
 - The area is predominantly residential.
 - I predominantly watch JForrest English lessons.
-

Improve – Enhance

Used to make something better, especially design, quality, or experience.

- They improved the design of the product.
 - They enhanced the design of the product.
-

Think About – Consider

Used when reflecting on options thoughtfully.

- You should think about all the options.
 - You should consider all the options.
-

Do You Want To Understand Real English And Sound Like A Native English Speaker In Only 90 Days?

JOIN
NOW

The Finally Fluent Academy is a complete program to help you:

- Learn Advanced Vocabulary And Natural Expressions
- Understand Fast-Paced Native English Speakers
- Understand And Use Advanced Grammar
- Improve Your Pronunciation And Reduce Your Accent
- Sound Professional In The Workplace
- Feel Confident Speaking English In Public

If you're ready to finally become fluent in English, click the button below and join today!

YES, I WANT TO JOIN NOW

FINALLY FLUENT ACADEMY

REAL STUDENTS, REAL RESULTS

Engeline Mavazhe It makes me really happy learning on the Finally fluent Academy with Jennifer, because she taught me the best ways to master English naturally. Truly speaking I love and enjoy the life lessons where Jennifer encourages us to express ourselves and inspires us to think in fluent English. I also have the opportunity to download live lessons which I can watch and reply multiple times.

Finally, im feeling more confident, because the finally fluent academy motivates me with posters and quotes which encourage me to keep going and grasp the English language more effectively.

I recommend these lessons to anyone who is looking to improve and learn English. People should feel free to join the finally fluent Academy and get the results they are looking for.

Marcos Céspedes Jennifer, I have no words to describe the academy, since the first day I enrolled, I did it with a lifetime account because you are one of the best teachers, and your methods are excellent, congratulations!

Alfredo Olvera I love The Finally Fluent Academy because it's a very interesting method to learn English and every week it blows me away.

I know I will improve my English and the most important, Jennifer loves teaching English to all her students.

Congratulations Jennifer!

Madistin Fatson I love the finally fluent Academy so much JForrest she's the best teacher ever, so when she's teaching you she's really taking a patience with you, I so like you my teacher ❤️💛💜 God bless you

Nina Barkho 🌟 Jennifer Forrest I'm proud that I can speak without being afraid or shy, and I'm proud that I have a you to teach me.. thank you from button of my heart

Natalia Wilson This week I'm proud of myself for working on Finally Fluent Academy program. Thank you Jennifer for such relevant lessons. They are always interesting and useful!

Wei-ting Chang At the beginning of the year I started from scratch to learn spoken English. So I need to figure out the best way to improve my speaking skills. Fortunately, now I got it which is the finally fluent Academy. So happy to be here. Awesome!

Youri Hak After watching the presentation of the FFA (finally fluent academy) program, I figured out that it could be the best way to improve my english quickly.

Jhoe Jaropojop Lao
8 mins

Jennifer Forrest I watched the record of your live session last night. And I learned alot. I like your teaching style, you give us structure form of the sentences from there it's easy for us to memorized or to learned. You know! I can say I started to gain my confident in speaking English, in just a short period of time thank you Jennifer I highly recommend your Finally Fluent Academy.

Haïssam Assi 🙌 Fantastic!!! Now I got it in no time!!! Honestly, I really appreciate your method to teach us, you deserve better, you do a fabulous job!!! I feel relax and comfortable when I learn with you...thank you Jennifer Forrest 💙

Love · Reply · 24m · Edited

Devi from India

"Jennifer Forrest is an amazing teacher! Now I'm getting used to speaking naturally and confidently only because of her support and motivation. After joining this Academy you'll feel so comfortable and see a massive improvement in your communication skills."

Oner Hazapeiko
Re: 📺 The Weekly Lessons
To: Jennifer Forrest

Hi Jenifer! Thank you for your care about me. I must say how I continue being amazed and fascinated by your course. I consider your course as a piece of art in the field of educational programmes. I am going to revise the chapter A which is concerned with phrasal verbs & idioms once more. And I hope to proceed to Weekly Lessons soon. Forgive me for my mistakes. I hope I will get rid of them with your help. Kind regards Oleg Nazarenko 😊

Apurba Roy 🙌 This week I'm proud to see the effect of joining the Final Fluent Academy and becoming more confident while speaking

Titu Păcurar ... finally I can understand and speak to English speakers, I can watch movies and everything I want in English language. After years of struggling I found the best teacher ever with the best methods of teaching. It was one of my best decision joining Jennifer's Academy! I'm still excited about and also happy for everyone who is part of this amazing community! Proud of you, guys! 🙌🙌

YES, I WANT TO JOIN NOW

40 Synonyms for Advanced English

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Say – State

Used when expressing something verbally or in writing.

- He said his opinion clearly.
 - He stated his opinion clearly.
-

Talk About – Discuss

Used to have a conversation or explanation about something.

- Let's talk about the next steps.
 - Let's discuss the next steps.
-

Live – Reside

Used for where someone lives, often in legal or official contexts.

- He lives in a quiet neighborhood.
 - He resides in a quiet neighborhood.
-

Change – Modify

Used when making a small or precise change.

- The policy was changed last year.
 - The policy was modified last year.
-

Reduce – Minimize

Used when lowering something as much as possible.

- Efforts were made to reduce the risk.
 - Efforts were made to minimize the risk.
-

40 Synonyms for Advanced English

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Stop – Cease

Used when ending an action, often in writing or commands.

- The noise stopped suddenly.
 - The noise ceased suddenly.
-

Try – Attempt

Used when making an effort, especially serious efforts.

- He tried to solve the puzzle.
 - He attempted to solve the puzzle.
-

Get better – Recover

Used when health or condition improves.

- He got better quickly from the flu.
 - He recovered quickly from the flu.
-

Get worse – Deteriorate

Used when health or conditions decline.

- Her health got worse over time.
 - Her health deteriorated over time.
-

Think carefully – Contemplate

Used when deeply thinking about something.

- She thought carefully about moving abroad.
 - She contemplated moving abroad.
-

40 Synonyms for Advanced English

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Make better – Refine

Used to improve something in detail or precision.

- The process was made better for efficiency.
 - The process was refined for efficiency.
-

Get rid of – Eliminate

Used to remove something unwanted.

- They got rid of wasteful spending.
 - They eliminated wasteful spending.
-

Check – Verify

Used when confirming something, often in technical or official contexts.

- Please check your email address.
 - Please verify your email address.
-

Use up – Deplete

Used when resources are completely used, often with energy or money.

- The project used up their budget.
 - The project depleted their budget.
-

Tell the truth – Confess

Used when admitting something, often related to guilt or honesty.

- He told the truth about the mistake.
 - He confessed to the mistake.
-

40 Synonyms for Advanced English

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Big – Significant

Used to describe something important, large in size, or with a strong effect.

- The study showed a big increase in temperature.
 - The study showed a significant increase in temperature.
-

Small – Minor

Used for something not very important or very small.

- There was a small delay in the delivery.
 - There was a minor delay in the delivery.
-

Great – Excellent

Used to describe high quality or something stronger.

- She gave a great presentation at the conference.
 - She gave an excellent presentation at the conference.
-

Bad – Detrimental

Used to describe something harmful, often health- or policy-related.

- Smoking has bad effects on health.
 - Smoking has detrimental effects on health.
-

Easy – Effortless

Used when something requires little effort or feels natural.

- The transition was easy.
 - The transition was effortless.
-

40 Synonyms for Advanced English

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Hard – Challenging

Used when something is difficult but positive or encouraging.

- Climbing the mountain was a hard task.
 - Climbing the mountain was a challenging task.
-

Look at – Observe

Used when watching carefully, often in science or analysis.

- Scientists looked at the behavior of the animals.
 - Scientists observed the behavior of the animals.
-

Show up – Appear

Used when something becomes visible or present.

- A rainbow showed up in the sky.
 - A rainbow appeared in the sky.
-

Go – Proceed

Used when continuing or moving forward, often in instructions.

- Please go to the next page.
 - Please proceed to the next page.
-

Raise – Elevate

Used when lifting or increasing something, sometimes metaphorically.

- He raised the discussion to a new level.
- He elevated the discussion to a new level.

40 Synonyms for Advanced English

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Fall – Decline

Used when something decreases, often in reports.

- There was a sharp fall in demand.
 - There was a sharp decline in demand.
-

Famous – Prominent

Used to describe someone or something well known or important in a particular area.

- She is a famous author.
 - She is a prominent author.
-

Increase – Boost

Used when something gets bigger, implying a sharp or helpful increase.

- Marketing strategies increased the company's sales.
 - Marketing strategies boosted the company's sales.
-

Need – Require

Used when something is necessary.

- Most jobs need computer skills.
 - Most jobs require computer skills.
-

Ask – Inquire

Used when requesting information, often in business or writing.

- She asked about the job opening.
 - She inquired about the job opening.
-

40 Synonyms for Advanced English

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Work – Operate

Used when something functions, often technical or professional.

- The system works smoothly.
 - The system operates smoothly.
-

End – Conclude

Used when finishing something, common in reports or speeches.

- The meeting will end at noon.
 - The meeting will conclude at noon.
-

Give – Provide

Used when offering something.

- The teacher gave clear instructions.
 - The teacher provided clear instructions.
-

Keep – Retain

Used to hold or not lose something, common in work or legal contexts.

- Employees may keep unused vacation days.
 - Employees may retain unused vacation days.
-

A lot – Frequently

Used to describe something happening many times or often.

- She goes to the gym a lot.
 - She frequently goes to the gym.
-

40 Synonyms for Advanced English

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Long time – Extended time

Used to describe a duration that lasts for a significant amount of time.

- They waited for a long time.
 - They waited for an extended time.
-

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

Help – Assist

Used when supporting someone or making something easier.

- She helped her coworker finish the task.
- She assisted her coworker in finishing the task.

 assist + someone + in + gerund

- She helped/assisted her coworker with the task.

Start – Commence

Used when beginning something formally or officially.

- The event started at 9 a.m.
- The event commenced at 9 a.m.
- I commence my day by watching a JForrest English lesson!

Deal With – Handle

Used when managing or taking care of a situation.

- She deals with customer complaints.
- She handles customer complaints.

Think Of – Devise

Used when determining a plan or idea.

- He thought of a new marketing strategy.
- He devised a new marketing strategy.

Give In – Yield

Used when stopping resistance or agreeing after initial opposition.

- She finally gave in to their demands.
- She finally yielded to their demands.

Explain – Clarify

Used when making something easier to understand or more precise.

- Could you explain the instructions?
- Could you clarify the instructions?

Finish – Finalize

Used when completing something fully or making it officially complete.

- They finished the report yesterday.
- They finalized the report yesterday.

Modern – Contemporary

Used when describing something belonging to the present or recent times.

- The house has a modern design.
- The house has a contemporary design.

Family – Household

Used when referring to people living together in one home.

- There are four people in her family.
- There are four people in her household.

Boss – Employer

Used when referring to a person or company who hires and supervises workers.

- She spoke to her boss about a raise.
- She spoke to her employer about a raise.

Successful – Fruitful

Used when describing an effort or outcome that brings good results.

- The meeting was successful.
- The meeting was fruitful.

Different – Diverse

Used when describing variety or lack of sameness.

- The students come from different backgrounds.
- The students come from diverse backgrounds.

Experience – Expertise

Used when referring to skill gained through practice or knowledge in a field.

- She has experience in project management.
- She has expertise in project management.

Possible – Feasible

Used when describing something that can be done or achieved.

- It's possible to complete the project by Friday.
- It's feasible to complete the project by Friday.

Choose – Select

Used when picking from options, often in formal contexts.

- You can choose any topic for your essay.
- You can select any topic for your essay.

Look For – Seek

Used when trying to find something.

- They're looking for new employees.
- They're seeking new employees.

Show Off – Exhibit

Used when displaying something proudly.

- The artist showed off her work.
- The artist exhibited her work.

Put Off – Postpone

Used when delaying something to a later time.

- They put off the meeting until Monday.
- They postponed the meeting until Monday.

Look After – Supervise

Used when overseeing people or activities.

- She looks after the interns.
- She supervises the interns.

Find Out – Discover

Used when learning something new.

- I found out the reason for the delay.
- I discovered the reason for the delay.

Fix – Repair

Used when restoring something that's broken.

- He fixed the computer.
- He repaired the computer.

Keep Going – Persist

Used when continuing despite difficulty.

- She kept going even when it was hard.
- She persisted even when it was hard.

Get In Touch – Contact

Used when reaching out to someone.

- I'll get in touch with you soon.
- I'll contact you soon.

Talk To – Communicate With

Used when exchanging information or ideas.

- She talked to her manager about it.
- She communicated with her manager about it.

Look Into – Investigate

Used when examining something closely.

- The company is looking into the problem.
- The company is investigating the problem.

Find – Locate

Used when identifying where something is.

- She found her keys under the sofa.
- She located her keys under the sofa.

More Time – An Extension

Used to formally request additional time to complete something

- She needed more time to meet the deadline.
- He needed an extension to meet the deadline.

Ask For – Request

Used when formally asking for something.

- She asked for an extension.
- She requested an extension.

Go On – Continue

Used to describe the length of something without stopping.

- Our discussion went on for an hour.
- Our discussion continued for an hour.

Point Out – Highlight

Used when drawing attention to something.

- She pointed out the key issue.
- She highlighted the key issue.

Think Over – Reflect On

Used when considering something carefully.

- He thought over the offer before replying.
- He reflected on the offer before replying.

Work On – Strengthen

Used when improving or creating something.

- She's working on her presentation skills.
- She's strengthening her presentation skills.

Throw Away – Discard

Used when removing something officially and permanently.

- He threw away the old documents.
- He discarded the old documents.

Keep Up – Maintain

Used when continuing something consistently.

- Try to keep up your diet.
- Try to maintain your diet.

Review – Scrutinize

Used when reviewing something very carefully to discover or judge information.

- She reviewed the new policy.
- She scrutinized the new policy.

Check Out – Inspect

Used when examining something carefully.

- The manager checked out the new product.
- The manager inspected the new product.

Talk With – Consult

Used when seeking advice or expertise.

- He talked with a doctor.
- He consulted a doctor.

Move Forward – Advance

Used when progressing to the next stage.

- The team moved forward with the plan.
- The team advanced with the plan.

Look Back – Reflect

Used when thinking about the past.

- She looked back on her childhood.
- She reflected on her childhood.

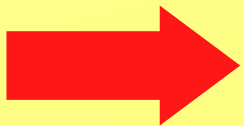

Make Sure – Ensure

Used when confirming something will happen.

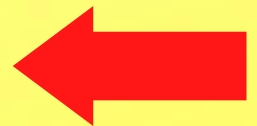

- Please make sure the door is locked.
- Please ensure the door is locked.

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

PREFERENCES

When you must choose between two or more options

Do you prefer to study in the morning or at night?

1. I'd say I generally prefer studying in the morning (over at night).
2. I tend to study in the morning more than at night.
3. Most of the time, I study at night.
4. I'm most alert in the morning, so that's when I study.
5. I used to prefer evenings, but my work schedule has changed so now I study in the mornings.

OPINIONS

When you're sharing what you think, agree/disagree, or your general view.

Do you think children should learn to cook at school?

6. In my opinion, children shouldn't learn to cook at school.
7. It depends on the situation, but I'd say children should learn to cook at school.
8. To be honest, I'm completely opposed to teaching children how to cook at school.
9. Honestly, I completely support teaching children how to cook at school.
10. As far as I'm concerned, children should focus on the most important academic subjects at school.

PAST EXPERIENCES

When you're describing a time or talking about memories

Describe a time when you traveled somewhere new.

11. I remember back in 2019 when I took my first trip abroad.
12. One time that really stands out is when I visited the United States for the first time.
13. The first trip that comes to mind is my weekend camping trip with my family last month.

14. The last time I travelled somewhere new was three years ago. I attended my friend's wedding in Greece.
15. I can clearly recall the moment when I saw the Eiffel Tower for the first time.

HYPOTHETICALS

When you talk about imaginary situations (if, could)

If you could live in any city, where would you choose?

16. If I could live in any city, I would live in San Francisco.
17. If I had the chance, I would definitely live in Vancouver.
18. I would likely (definitely) choose Tokyo.
19. Seattle is a vibrant city, so I would live there if I had the chance.
20. Due to its proximity to my family, I would live in Seoul.

BALANCED ANSWERS

Used when you want to discuss both sides instead of choosing one.

Do you think young people prefer cities or rural areas?

21. Well, it really depends on the person.
22. Some people prefer lively cities, while others prefer quiet rural areas.
23. There are good arguments on both sides.
24. There are pros and cons to both. It depends on the person.
25. That's difficult to answer because it comes down to personal preference.

EXAMPLE REQUESTS

When you're asked to provide an example.

Can you give an example of when you worked collaboratively.

26. Certainly. For example, last month I was part of a project.
27. Absolutely. The first example that comes to mind is when I joined a soccer team.

28. I'd love to. A great example of working collaboratively is when I was asked to organize a conference.
29. Definitely. The best example of working collaboratively is a project I'm on now.
30. Sure. One example I can share is when I volunteered at my daughter's school.

WHEN YOU'RE UNSURE

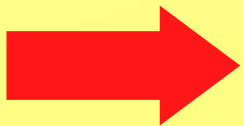

When you don't know much about the topic, but still need to answer.

When do you think space travel will become accessible to the average person?

31. Honestly, I don't know. But I imagine it will happen this century.
32. I'm not entirely sure, but I suppose it could happen in the next 20 years.
33. I can't say for certain, but I think my grandkids will experience this.
34. Well, I haven't thought about that before. It may happen by 2035.
35. That's a difficult question. If I had to guess, I would say in the next 100 years.

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

23 Phrasal Verbs

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

1. Call someone out

Confront or criticize someone, often publicly, for their actions or behavior.

- She called him out for not keeping his promises.
- My students always call me out when I make a typo.

2. Call out to someone

Shout or raise your voice to get someone's attention.

- He called out to his friend across the street.

He called out his friend. ✓

- Publicly criticized

He called out to his friend. ✓

- Shouted to get his attention.

3. Jump in

Enter a conversation or situation.

- Feel free to jump in with any ideas.
- It's nice to see Sarah jumping in at meetings.

📌 Generally used in a positive way.

4. Butt in

Interrupt or intrude into a conversation, in a negative way.

- He kept butting in while I was presenting.
- You should just butt out! It's none of your business.
 - To stop intruding in something that doesn't concern you.

📌 Jump/butt into a conversation, discussion, meeting, situation

📌 Butt out of a conversation, discussion, meeting, situation

5. Come up with

Think of or create something, such as an idea, plan, or solution.

- They came up with a new marketing strategy.
- I spend time every day coming up with new lessons for you!

23 Phrasal Verbs

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

6. Come out with

To introduce or release something new, usually a product or service.

- The way we communicate changed when Apple came out with the iPhone.

Engineers at Apple came up with the idea of a smart phone in 2005.

- Thought of the idea.

Apple came out with the iPhone in 2007.

- Released the idea to the public as a product.

7. Back out of something

Decide not to do something you had previously agreed to.

- She backed out of the deal at the last minute.
- You said you were going to finish the English course, don't back out now!

8. Back something up

To make a copy of data to prevent loss.

- For years my husband told me I should back up my computer, but I didn't listen.
- Now that I use Google Docs, my files are automatically backed up!

9. Catch on to something

Begin to understand or realize something.

- It took him a while, but he finally caught on to the joke.
- It took him a while, but he finally caught on.

10. Catch up to someone

Reach the same level or pace as someone else.

- She's driving too fast. We'll never catch up (to her).
- I need to catch up on my work so I can catch up to my coworker.
 - To do tasks that were missed/not completed.

11. Get across

Successfully communicate or convey an idea to others.

- He tried to get his point across in the meeting.
- I'm not sure what you're trying to get across.

23 Phrasal Verbs

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

12. Cheer on

Encourage or support someone, often vocally.

- The fans cheered on their team.
- Thank you for cheering me on! I couldn't have done it without your support!

13. Cheer up

Help someone feel happier, become happier oneself.

- I brought him a coffee to cheer him up.
- The fact that you came to cheer me on really cheered me up!

14. Carry on

Continue with an activity or task, despite challenges.

- She decided to carry on with her studies despite the difficulties.

15. Carry out

Complete or perform an action, plan, or task.

- They carried out the experiment successfully.
- Let's carry on with the experiments. Have you carried out the first test?

📌 Carry On With Something; Carry Something Out

16. Look into something

Investigate or examine something in detail.

- The company is looking into the issue.

17. Look over something

Review or examine something briefly or casually.

- She looked over the document before signing.
- I looked into (investigated) the company and I didn't find any red flags. I still need to look over (review) the contract.

18. Check in with someone

Communicate with someone to see how they are doing or if they need assistance.

- He checked in with his supervisor before leaving for the day.
 - Do you need anything before I leave?

23 Phrasal Verbs

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

19. Check up on someone

Monitor or observe someone's progress, condition, or behavior to ensure all is well.

My dad had an accident, so I check up on him every day.

📌 Sometimes seen as negative because it suggests you don't trust someone's abilities.

- My boss checks up on me every 5 minutes!

20. Hang out

Spend time with someone socially in a casual way.

- We hung out at home all weekend.
- Let's hang out soon!

21. Hang up

End a phone call

- She hung up before they decided where to hang out.

22. Break up with someone

End a romantic relationship.

- He broke up with his girlfriend last month.
- We broke up.

23. Break something up

Separate something into smaller parts.

- The teacher broke up the assignment into 3 parts.

I broke her up. 😬

- You divided her into smaller parts.

I broke up with her. 😬

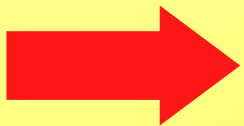

- You ended your romantic relationship with her.

Click Here To Learn 15 More Phrasal Verbs

Click here to subscribe for more free lessons!

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

SOCIALIZING & SMALL TALK

When did you take up yoga?

To take something up – To start an activity (as a regular routine).

- I've been thinking about taking up tennis again this summer.
- Don't take up another activity unless you have time for it.
- Thankfully I found Jennifer's channel shortly after I took up learning English!

He always brings up politics at work!

To bring something up – To start talking about a topic.

- Can we not bring up that topic at dinner tonight?
- He keeps bringing up her trip—he's clearly impressed.

She really got along with my cousin!

To get along with – To have a good relationship with.

- Are you getting along with your new coworkers?
- They would get along better if they communicated more.

You'll never guess who I ran into today!

To run into someone – To meet by chance.

- If I run into her again, I'll say "hi" this time.
- I haven't run into anyone I know since I moved back home.

AT A CAFÉ

Sorry, we sold out of chocolate donuts.

To sell out of – To have no more of something to sell.

- Do you think they'll sell out of those donuts again tomorrow?
- We're about to sell out, so grab one while you can!

I should cut back on sugar anyway.

To cut back on – To reduce the amount of something.

- I've been cutting back on coffee lately—it was giving me jitters.
- If you want to lose weight, I suggest cutting back on carbs.

16 Phrasal Verbs I Use Every Day

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

We're trying out a new sugar-free cookie recipe.

To try out – To use or test something to see if it works well.

- Let's try out their new seasonal latte next time.
- After you try out the new blender, let me know your thoughts.

You only picked at your cookie. You don't like it?

To pick at – To eat only a small amount.

- She picked at her salad but barely touched the rest of the meal.
- I was in a Zoom meeting over lunch and could only pick at my sandwich.

MEETINGS & APPOINTMENTS

Can we set up a meeting for next week?

To set up – To schedule or arrange.

- I'll be setting up a few interviews this afternoon.
- Did you already set up the call with the designer?

Please follow up with us next week.

To follow up (with someone on/about something) – To continue a previous conversation.

- I was supposed to follow up yesterday, but I forgot.
 - I was supposed to follow up with you on/about the report yesterday, but I forgot.
- It's been 3 days and they haven't responded. Should I follow up or should I wait?

Have you checked in with the client yet?

To check in (with someone on/about something) – To contact someone (to make sure there are no problems).

- Don't forget to check in with them before you go on vacation.
 - Don't forget to check in with them on/about the invoice before you go on vacation.
- My boss checks in with me every hour. It's annoying.

16 Phrasal Verbs I Use Every Day

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

📌 At a hotel – Don't forget to check in before noon. ← Register your arrival at a hotel.

📌 In a meeting – Don't forget to check in before noon. ← Contact someone to make sure there are no issues.

I blocked off an hour for our meeting.

To block off – To reserve time in your schedule.

- Should we block off some time on Friday?
 - I'm blocking off tomorrow afternoon to catch up on emails.
-

GIVING COMPLIMENTS

That outfit really brings out your eyes.

To bring out – To emphasize, highlight, or make something more noticeable or attractive.

- Great choice! That frame really brings out the colors in the photo.
- Your confidence is starting to bring out the best in your team.

I want to point out how well you handled that irate customer.

To point out – To bring attention to something.

- You've been doing such a great job lately, and I just wanted to point that out.
- I appreciated that you pointed out how much my design skills have improved.

Who came up with this great idea?

To come up with – To create or suggest an idea or plan.

- You're going to come up with something brilliant again – I know it!
- I can't believe you came up with that slogan on the spot! That's incredible.

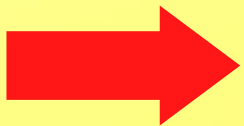

You've really stepped up lately!

To step up – To take on more responsibility or improve one's performance.

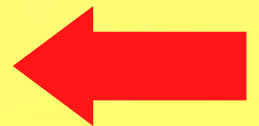

- I noticed how you stepped up when the deadline was moved. I just wanted to point out the great leadership you showed!
 - She's been stepping up in every way since Peter quit.
-

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

Changing Regular Verbs To Phrasal Verbs

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Hold - To grasp or carry something in one's hands.

Hold Off - To delay or postpone something.

Should we sign the contract?

Let's hold off (until we hear back from HR).

Let's hold off on signing the contract until we get more details.

Don't hold off on improving your English!

Let's hold a meeting to discuss holding off on the project.

Put - To place something in a specific position.

Put Off - To postpone or delay something.

They put off the wedding until next year.

📌 Hold Off vs Put Off

Hold Off - Waiting for more information

Put Off - General (any reason)

They put off getting married until next year.

We put off cleaning the garage until next week but we did put the books on the shelf!

Pull - To exert force to move something closer.

Pull Off - To succeed in achieving something difficult.

He pulled off an incredible victory.

I can't believe we pulled it off!

She pulled the chair closer as I told her how I pulled off improving my speaking skills in only 30 days!

Break - To separate something into pieces by force.

Break Off - To suddenly stop or end something.

📌 Often used with relationships, agreements, or conversations.

Changing Regular Verbs To Phrasal Verbs

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

I can't believe she broke off her engagement.

I can't believe she broke it off.

You broke my heart by breaking off our engagement!

Call - To contact someone by phone.

Call Off - To cancel an event.

They called off the meeting.

 Break Off vs Call Off

Break Off - A relationship or agreement (personal & emotional)

Call Off - An event (business & community)

We broke off our engagement.

We called off the wedding.

She called her friend to let her know that the organizers called off the event.

Cut - To divide or remove something using a sharp tool.

Cut Off - To interrupt or stop someone or something abruptly.

She cut me off in the middle of my story!

She just cut me right off!

- Used to emphasize.

Sorry to cut you off, but I accidentally cut the ribbon too short.

Drop - To let something fall.

Drop Off - To deliver something or someone to a location.

I'll drop you off at the station.

When is the package being dropped off?

- Passive Voice (the package is receiving the action)

She dropped her pen as she dropped off the reports.

Changing Regular Verbs To Phrasal Verbs

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Get - To obtain or receive something.

Get Off - To exit a form of transportation; end work for the day.

Where do we get off (the train; subway; bus; plane; boat).

📌 Please get out of my car.

What time do you get off (work)?

- What time do you finish working for the day.

He got some advice from a stranger before he got off the train.

Give - To offer or present something to someone.

Give Off - To emit or produce something (light, heat, smell, etc.).

The fire gave off a lot of smoke.

The candles gave off a warm glow as she gave a heartfelt speech.

Go - To move from one place to another.

Go Off - To activate or suddenly make noise

📌 Commonly used with alarms & detectors

My alarm started going off at midnight.

Open the window before the smoke detector goes off!

Let's go outside until the alarm stops going off.

Keep - To retain or maintain something.

Keep Off - To avoid stepping on or using something.

Please keep off the grass.

Keep your pets off the grass.

She kept off the muddy path to keep her shoes dry.

Changing Regular Verbs To Phrasal Verbs

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Let - To allow or permit.

Let Off - To excuse someone from punishment or responsibility.

The judge let him off (with a warning).

She wasn't going to let me off the hook!

My boss let me off the hook.

- My boss didn't punish me, even though I deserved it.

I let my brother borrow my car and he got a parking ticket! Thankfully the officer let me off when I told him it was my brother's fault.

Kick - To strike with the foot.

Kick Off - To start an event or activity.

The game kicked off at 7 PM.

When are we kicking off the project?

She kicked the ball to kick off the game.

Rip - To tear something apart forcefully.

Rip Off - To cheat or overcharge someone.

She totally ripped me off! She told me this is a real Louis Vuitton bag!

 To feel ripped off (adjective)

I feel ripped off every time I buy food at an airport.

$5 for a bottle of water. What a rip-off (noun)!

The store ripped her off, claiming she ripped her jeans on purpose and therefore couldn't return them.

Run - To move quickly on foot.

Run Off - To leave suddenly, often to escape.

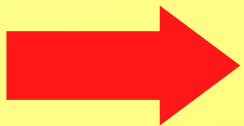

I can't believe Ross ran off with his family's savings!

I can't believe Ross ran off with his boss's wife!

She ran after the thief when she saw him running off with a stolen bag.

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

50 Natural Phrases I Use Every Day!

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Directions

Why don't we just ask someone where it is?

- Suggests asking for help instead of guessing.

Is the museum walking distance from here?

- walking distance = close enough to walk.

We should take an Uber!

- modal of suggestion + base verb

You should comment "Let's Go!"

What street are we on?

- on + street name

I think we're lost!

- to be lost
-

Shopping & Customer Service

Excuse me. How much is this?

- polite way to ask for a price.

Do you have this in medium?

- in + size/color.

Where can I try this on?

- where is the changing/fitting room?

Is this included in the sale?

I don't need a bag.

At a Cafe

What time do you close today?

I don't need a receipt.

What's the Wi-Fi (password)?

Is there somewhere I can plug in my laptop?

- plug in = connect to an outlet.

Sorry, but there's no toilet paper.

- sorry = casual way to get someone's attention.
-

50 Natural Phrases I Use Every Day!

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Ordering Coffee

I'll get a small cappuccino.

Can you make it extra hot?

Actually, I'll get it to go.

- to go = take it with you.

Hold the whipping cream.

- hold = don't include/add.

What kind of muffins are these?

- asking about the flavor.

Plans With Friends

Are you free this weekend?

Let's grab coffee after work!

- grab = get, have, go for

We need to catch up soon!

- catch up = talk and reconnect.

What are you up to this weekend?

- up to = doing.

I'm just relaxing at home this weekend.

- up to is not used in the reply, only the question.

At the Salon/Barber's

I'll call you later. I'm just getting a haircut.

- to get a haircut.

Just the usual today.

- to ask for your regular cut or style.

Nothing fancy, just a trim.

- trim = a small cut to keep hair tidy.

Just clean up the split ends.

- clean up = tidy, fix, remove.

Can you add some layers?

- layers = a haircut with different lengths for texture and volume.
-

50 Natural Phrases I Use Every Day!

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Healthcare & Appointments

Do you accept walk-ins?

- walk-in = no appointment needed.

I need to reschedule my appointment.

- to change the time/date.

Are there any appointments available today?

When will my results be in?

- be in = be available.

I need to update my address on file.

- on file = in the clinic's records.

Chores & Errands

We're out of milk!

- to be out of = none left.

Can you give me a hand with dinner?

- give me a hand = help me.

Are you picking the kids up?

Can we stop by the bank on the way?

- stop by = visit quickly.

I'm taking the car into the garage tomorrow.

- into the garage = for repairs or check-ups.

Parenting

Remember that parent-teacher night is on Thursday.

- a meeting between the parents and teachers.

Cindy has a playdate at Ashley's tonight.

- playdate = arranged time for kids to play.

What time is soccer practice again?

Did you check Olly's homework?

- check = review, verify

I signed Sheldon up for piano lessons.

- to sign (someone) up = register/enroll.

50 Natural Phrases I Use Every Day!

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Household Problems

The dishwasher is leaking.

- leaking = water coming out where it shouldn't.

The power went out for over an hour this morning.

- power went out = electricity stopped.

My printer ran out of ink.

- ran out of = used up or finished.

The oven is acting up again.

- acting up = not working properly.

We need to replace the washer and dryer.

- replace = get new ones.
-

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

I need help!

Could you walk me through how to export this document?

- To explain something in detail

(Is there) Any chance you know how to export this document?

Would you mind showing me how to export this document?

Would you mind commenting "Let's Go!"?

Do you have a sec to help me out (with this document)?

Do you have a sec to help me out by liking this video?

I don't understand!

I don't get how to export this document.

I'm having trouble exporting the document.

I'm having trouble with the document.

I'm not entirely clear on how to export this document.

I'm struggling to understand this.

I need more time.

I'm not going to make the deadline.

We need to push back/postpone the deadline.

I'm running behind on the project.

We need to buy some time with the client.

- We need to stall/delay the client so we create more time.

I'm really busy.

I'm swamped with/because of the project.

The project is taking up all my time!

- consuming/using/occupying

My schedule/calendar is (jam) packed this week.

Things are really hectic right now.

What's your opinion?

What's your take (on this)?

What's your perspective, view, point of view, viewpoint (on this)?

How do you see this?

In my opinion,

From my perspective/viewpoint,

That's not a good idea.

I'm not (too) sure about that.

I have some concerns/reservations/doubts about the conference.

Have you thought about cancelling the conference?

Before we move forward, we need to consider the cost.

That's a great idea.

I can get behind that (idea)!

You're really onto something!

That's spot on!

100%

- That's completely correct/accurate; I completely agree.
-

Let's meet to discuss this.

(When) Are you free to go over this?

Can we touch base on this soon?

Does Monday at 11:00 am work for you (to discuss this)?

Let's set aside some time to iron out the details.

- To finalize; resolve
-

Let's start.

Let's get the ball rolling.

Let's hit the ground running.

Let's do it.

Let's get going/moving/cracking.

It's go time!

I can't attend the meeting.

I can't make the meeting/it.

Sorry, I have a scheduling conflict.

Sorry, I'm already booked.

Unfortunately, I have another commitment.

I'm not free/available at that time.

They work well together.

They have a strong rapport/relationship.

They're close-knit.

They're a close-knit team.

They have a positive/supportive working relationship.

They complement each other.

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

Quandary – Noun

/ˈkwɒn.dri/

A difficult situation or dilemma

- I'm in a quandary about whether to take the new job or stay where I am.
 - Sarah found herself in a quandary when both her friends asked her to help at the same time.
 - The manager's quandary was whether to invest in new equipment or hire more staff.
 - I was in a quandary about how to improve my English until I found JForrest English!
-

Ruckus – Noun

/ˈrʌk.əs/

A noisy commotion or disturbance

- The kids caused quite a ruckus when they found out the pool was closed.
 - There was a ruckus in the hallway after someone pulled the fire alarm.
 - Stop making such a ruckus—people are trying to work here!
-

Whim – Noun

/wɪm/

A sudden and impulsive decision

- On a whim, we decided to drive to the beach for the day.
 - She bought the dress on a whim, even though she didn't really need it.
 - His sudden trip to Europe was just another one of his whims.
-

20 Advanced English Words

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Glitch – Noun

/ɡlɪtʃ/

A minor error or malfunction

- There's a glitch in the software that's causing the program to crash.
 - Everything was running smoothly until we hit a minor glitch in the system.
 - The flight was delayed due to a technical glitch with the plane.
-

Stroll – Noun

/strɒl/

A leisurely walk

- We took a nice stroll through the park after dinner.
 - She likes to go for a stroll around the neighborhood to clear her mind.
 - She likes to stroll around the neighborhood to clear her mind.
verb
-

Scrutinize – Verb

/ˈskruː.tɪ.naɪz/

To examine something closely and carefully

- The accountant scrutinized the financial reports for any errors.
 - You need to scrutinize the contract carefully before signing it.
 - My boss scrutinizes my every move!
-

20 Advanced English Words

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Dwindle – Verb

/ˈdwɪn.dəl/

To gradually decrease or diminish

- The crowd began to dwindle as the concert came to an end.
 - Her savings dwindled after she lost her job.
 - Interest in the project is dwindling.
-

Nudge – Verb

/nʌdʒ/

To physically push or encourage someone or something gently

- She nudged him to remind him it was his turn to speak.
 - He nudged the door open just enough to peek inside.
 - I needed someone to nudge me into making the decision I'd been avoiding.
-

Scoff – Verb

/skɒf/

To mock or show contempt

- He scoffed at the idea of working overtime on a weekend.
 - My father scoffed when I shared my idea to start my own business.
 - She scoffed when I told her I was thinking about running a marathon.
-

20 Advanced English Words

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Dodge – Verb

/dɒdʒ/

To avoid something

- He managed to dodge the question by changing the subject.
 - She quickly dodged out of the way to avoid being hit by the ball.
 - You can't keep dodging responsibility—you need to address the problem.
-

Implicitly – Adverb

/ɪmˈplɪs.ɪt.li/

In a way that is understood without being directly stated

- I implicitly trust her to make the right decision.
 - The instructions implicitly suggested that we should wait for further notice.
 - By signing the contract, you implicitly agree to the terms and conditions.
-

Zealously – Adverb

/ˈzel.əs.li/

With great passion or enthusiasm

- She zealously promoted the new product to every customer who walked in.
 - He worked zealously to finish the project ahead of schedule.
 - The volunteers zealously organized the charity event, ensuring every detail was perfect.
-

20 Advanced English Words

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Lavishly – Adverb

/ˈlæv.ɪʃ.li/

In an extravagant or excessive manner

- They decorated the venue lavishly for the wedding.
 - The company spent lavishly on its annual holiday party.
 - She praised her team lavishly for their hard work and dedication.
-

Briskly – Adverb

/ˈbrɪsk.li/

In a quick and energetic manner

- She walked briskly to catch the bus before it left.
 - The server briskly cleared the table to make room for new customers.
 - He spoke briskly, wanting to finish the meeting as quickly as possible.
-

Solemnly – Adverb

/ˈsɒl.əm.li/

In a serious and formal manner

- He solemnly promised to keep the secret.
 - The team stood solemnly during the national anthem.
 - She solemnly handed over the resignation letter.
-

20 Advanced English Words

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Convoluted – Adjective

/ˈkɒn.və.luː.tɪd/

Complicated and difficult to understand

- The instructions for assembling the furniture were so convoluted that I gave up.
 - His explanation of the situation was convoluted and hard to follow.
 - The plot of the movie was too convoluted.
-

Jittery – Adjective

/ˈdʒɪt.ər.i/

Nervous or unable to relax

- The students were jittery as they waited for their exam results.
 - I always get jittery before a big presentation.
 - He drank too much coffee and started to feel jittery.
-

Quirky – Adjective

/ˈkwɜː.ki/

Unusual in an interesting or charming way

- She has a quirky sense of humor that always makes me laugh.
 - The café has a quirky decor, with mismatched chairs and colorful walls.
 - His quirky personality makes him stand out in a crowd.
-

20 Advanced English Words

Click Here to Watch on YouTube

Finicky – Adjective

/ˈfɪn.ɪ.ki/

Picky or difficult to please

- He's so finicky about his food that he won't eat anything with onions.
 - The printer is finicky and jams if you don't load the paper just right.
 - She's a finicky dresser and spends hours choosing the perfect outfit.
-

Bland – Adjective

/blænd/

Lacking strong flavor or excitement

- The soup is bland. It needs salt, herbs and spices.
- This slide is a little bland. An image or some color would add interest.
- The room was painted a bland shade of gray.

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

Job Interviews & Hiring

I gave my best elevator pitch when we first met.

- Elevator Pitch (noun) – A short, persuasive summary about yourself or your idea, usually 30–60 seconds long.

You should dress the part for a management interview.

- To Dress The Part (idiom) – To wear clothing appropriate for a role or situation.

She really did her homework (on the company) before the meeting.

- To Do One's Homework (idiom) – To prepare in advance by researching.

A firm handshake and a smile create a strong first impression.

- First Impression (noun) – The initial opinion someone forms about you.

In an interview, you need to read the room to determine what level of formality to use.

- To Read the Room (idiom) – To understand the atmosphere and adjust your behavior accordingly.

I sent a follow-up email to thank the recruiter.

- A Follow-up Email (noun) – A thank-you or reminder sent after a meeting or interview.

First Day & Onboarding

The onboarding included a tour and introductions.

- Onboarding (noun) – The process of introducing a new employee to the company.

There were some icebreakers during orientation.

- Icebreaker (noun) – An activity/game to help people feel comfortable in a group.

The office has a business casual dress code.

- Dress Code (noun) – Rules about what employees can wear at work.

Senior management hosted a meet and greet for new hires.

- Meet and Greet (noun) – An informal session where people introduce themselves.

I'm still learning the ropes in my department.

- To Learn the Ropes (idiom) – To learn how a job or system works.

She made a good impression by arriving early.

- To Make A Good Impression (idiom) – To create a positive opinion early on.

Asking for & Offering Help

Can you give me a hand with these reports?

- To Give Someone A Hand (idiom) – To help with a task.

Could you point me in the right direction for the budget file?

- To Point Someone In The Right Direction (idiom) – To show or guide someone toward the correct way or place.

Can you back me up during the meeting?

- To Back Someone Up (idiom) – To support someone's idea or statement.

My boss walked me through the new software process.

- To Walk Someone Through Something (phrasal verb) – To explain something step-by-step.

Can you cover for me while I'm at lunch?

- To Cover For Someone (phrasal verb) – To do someone's work temporarily.

Keep me in the loop about/on the project changes.

- To Keep Someone In the Loop (idiom) – To share updates/information about something.

Participating in Meetings

Feel free to chime in if you have any ideas.

- Chime In (phrasal verb) – To join or add to a conversation.

Let's make sure we're on the same page before moving on.

- To Be On the Same Page (idiom) – To have the same understanding or agreement.

She took the floor to explain the plan.

- To Take the Floor (idiom) – To begin speaking to a group.

I'd like to raise a point about the deadline.

- Raise a Point (verb phrase) – To bring up an idea or concern.

Let's wrap up so we can go to lunch.

- To Wrap Up (phrasal verb) – To finish a discussion or meeting.

He gave us actionable advice for the presentation.

- Actionable Advice (noun phrase) – Advice that can be used quickly/practically.

I appreciate constructive criticism of my idea.

- Constructive Criticism (noun phrase) – Negative feedback intended to improve something.

The proposal has room for improvement in the timeline of the deliverables.

- Room for Improvement (noun phrase) – There is opportunity to make something better.

Workplace Socializing

Want to grab coffee after the meeting?

- To Grab Coffee (idiom) – To go get coffee, often socially.

Let's take a coffee break at 10.

- Coffee Break (noun) – A short break to have coffee.

How's your day going so far?

- How's X Going (So Far) (phrase) - To ask someone about the status of something.

What's going on with the conference?

- What's Going On (With Something) (phrase) - To ask about the status of something.

Pretty good, can't complain.

- Can't Complain (idiom) – A neutral or positive response to "How are you?"

Hey, long time no see! How have you been?

- Long Time No See (idiom) – Said when you haven't seen someone in a while.
-

Workplace Events & Time Off

Have you RSVP'd for the company picnic?

- To RSVP (verb) - to respond to an invitation to confirm if you will attend.

Can you do a headcount before lunch?

- Do A Headcount (verb phrase) – To count how many people will attend.

I'm taking the day off tomorrow.

- To Take Time Off (idiom) – To not go to work.

I had to call in sick on Monday.

- Call In Sick (phrasal verb) – To tell your boss you're sick and cannot come to work.

My time off really helped me recharge my batteries.

- To Recharge One's Batteries (idiom) – To rest and regain energy.

We're heading to the cottage for the long weekend.

- Long Weekend (noun) – A weekend extended by a public holiday.

I need to use up my vacation days by the end of the year!

- Vacation Days (noun) - The number of paid days an employee is allowed to take off work for rest or travel.

Performance & Motivation

She hit the ground running on her first day.

- To Hit The Ground Running (idiom) – To start a job quickly and effectively.

The manager set the tone for open communication.

- To Set The Tone (idiom) – To establish the mood or style for something.

I'm still getting acquainted with the new process.

- To Get Acquainted (with something) (phrasal verb) – To become familiar with people or systems.

Consistent positive reinforcement keeps the team motivated.

- Positive Reinforcement (noun phrase) – Encouragement by highlighting strengths.

She always goes the extra mile for her clients.

- To Go the Extra Mile (idiom) – To do more than what is required.

We worked late yesterday and now we're ahead of schedule.

- To Be Ahead Of Schedule (idiom) - To finish a task or project earlier than the planned time.

He took initiative and solved the issue before it got worse.

- Take Initiative (verb phrase) – To act without being told or waiting for permission.

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

Core Economic Concepts

Supply & demand (noun)

The balance between product availability and consumer desire, which affects price.

Housing prices are soaring because demand is high, but supply is low.

📌 To soar - To rise quickly & dramatically

My English confidence is soaring!

Inflation (noun)

Rising prices that reduce the value of money.

Everything costs more now—inflation has made groceries and rent much pricier.

📌 To be pricey - Expensive

Deflation (noun)

Falling prices, often due to weak demand.

Deflation might sound good in theory, but it usually means businesses are struggling.

Recession (noun)

A period of economic decline with job losses and slower growth.

Hiring freezes and layoffs suggest we might be heading into a recession.

📌 A hiring freeze - A temporary stop on hiring new employees.

📌 Layoffs - Job loss due to company cutbacks.

Boom & Bust (noun)

A boom is rapid economic growth.

A bust is a sudden downturn.

Tech companies thrived during the boom, but now many are going under in the bust.

📌 To fail; to permanently close

2. Market & Trade Terms

Free market (noun)

An economy where prices and businesses operate with little government control.

In a free market, competition keeps prices fair, but it can also lead to monopolies.

📌 A monopoly - When one company dominates a market with no competition.

Tariffs (noun)

Taxes on imported goods, often to protect local businesses.

Donald Trump is threatening to impose tariffs on many countries, including Canada and Mexico.

📌 To impose a tariff - To officially force a rule, tax, punishment.

Imports & Exports (noun)

Imports are goods brought into a country.

Exports are goods sold abroad.

Electronics are the country's main import and sugar is its primary export.

📌 To Import/Export (verb)

The U.S. imports a lot of oil, while it exports agricultural products like corn.

Trade Deficit / Trade Surplus (noun)

A trade deficit happens when a country imports more than it exports.

A trade surplus is when a country exports more than it imports.

The country's trade deficit is growing because it buys more from other nations than it sells.

A Bubble (noun)

When asset prices rise far above their true value.

The real estate bubble burst in the U.S in 2008.

 Burst (verb/noun) – The sudden collapse of those inflated prices.

3. Business & Investment

A Market Crash (noun)

A sudden and sharp drop in stock prices.

The 2008 market crash wiped out billions in retirement savings.

The 2008 market crash happened when the real estate bubble burst.

The Stock Market (noun)

The place where shares of companies are bought and sold.

The stock market dropped/rose today.

Bull market / Bear market (noun)

A bull market is when stock prices trend up over time.

A bear market is when stock prices trend down over time.

Investors made huge profits during the bull market, but now we're in a bear market, and stocks are crashing.

📌 To crash - A sudden and sharp decline.

Consumer Spending (noun)

The money people spend on goods and services, a key part of the economy.

Consumer spending shrank during Q1 but is expected to bounce back by Q3.

📌 To shrink - To reduce in size/amount.

📌 The fiscal year is divided into four quarters (Q1–Q4), each lasting three months.

Credit (noun)

Borrowed money that must be repaid, often with interest.

Higher interest rates make it more expensive to buy a car or house on credit.

4. Employment & Wages

Unemployment rate (noun)

The percentage of people who are jobless but looking for work.

The unemployment rate dropped last month, showing signs of job market recovery.

Job market (noun)

The availability of jobs and competition for them.

With so many layoffs, the job market is getting tougher for new graduates.

📌 Layoffs - Job loss due to company cutbacks.

Cost of living (noun)

The amount of money needed to cover basic expenses like housing and food.

The rising cost of living, driven by inflation, is making it harder for many families to afford basic necessities.

📌 To be driven by - To cause something to happen

Productivity (noun)

The amount of work produced in a given time.

Companies are investing in AI to boost worker productivity and cut costs.

📌 To cut costs - To reduce/eliminate costs

Make ends meet (idiom)

To earn just enough to cover expenses.

With inflation causing the cost of living to soar, many families are struggling to make ends meet.

5. Policies & Government

Monetary Policy (noun)

Central bank decisions (ex/ setting interest rates) to control inflation and growth.

The Federal Reserve raised interest rates as part of its monetary policy to fight inflation.

Fiscal Policy (noun)

Government decisions on taxation and public spending to manage the economy.

The government is using fiscal policy to stimulate growth by cutting taxes.

Taxes (noun)

Money collected by the government from individuals and businesses.

When are taxes due?

When is the deadline to file/submit taxes?

National Debt (noun)

The total money a government owes.

The national debt is soaring as the government borrows heavily to cover its budget deficit.

📌 A (Budget) Deficit (noun) – When spending exceeds revenue.

To Be In The Red/Black (idiom)

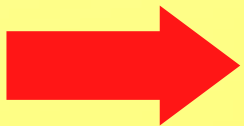

Red - Losing money

Black – Profitable

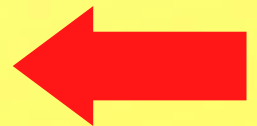

After years of being in the red, the new technology helped the company cut costs and move into the black.

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

Around < less or more Approximately

Almost < less (people)
Nearly 700,000 displaced in Lebanon as Middle East crisis escalates becomes worse/more severe

I nearly/almost finished the report.

I started the report around 8 am.

I started the report at approximately 8 am.

only in Lebanon
In Lebanon alone, nearly 700,000 people could be more or less than 200,000 including around 200,000 children have displaced. < passive voice (the people are receiving the action) been forced from their homes, adding to the tens of thousands already uprooted from previous escalations.
noun

I'm not going to uproot my entire life for my job!
(change)
*used negatively

I'm excited to move abroad and start fresh!

The development follows a weekend of adjective (describes strikes) escalating Israeli and U.S. strikes against Iran, counter-strikes by Iranian forces in response to a previous strike the strikes were from Iran across Israel and explosions in several Gulf States, along with Israeli strikes targeting Hezbollah in Lebanon.

repeat/express the same intensifies and - additional point related to the main topic strong/serious along with - additional point secondarily from the main topic

Echoing the deep concerns across the international community at the impact of the ongoing war on civilians, the UN's top aid official, Tom Fletcher, warned of wider, secondary impacts in countries including Afghanistan and Pakistan "where needs were already great".

Experts warned of flooding/floods after the storm.

Experts warned the community (that) the area could flood.

The area could flood.

My teacher warned me that the test will be difficult!

1 crises

Added to that, the focus on existing crises ²⁺ such as Sudan, South Sudan and Ukraine unintentionally losing priority is slipping "even further down the list", the emergency relief chief noted, along with secondary point

continued disregard for international law and institutions including the UN that were created to prevent conflict.

lack of attention, concern, respect

I'm so sorry, that completely slipped my mind! < I forgot

I'm so sorry, that slipped through the cracks! < to forget, miss, ignore something

^{verb}
Do I have to pump my own gas?
I think the pump is broken!
^{noun}

the gas station

As rapidly rising fuel prices at the pump on Monday ^{connected to} linked to higher oil barrel costs reflected ^{serious} deep economic uncertainty caused by the war, UN agencies also highlighted “severe global supply chain disruptions” ^{verb - /ə'fekt/} affecting shipping, energy and fertilizer markets.

Floods halted train service.

I stopped working on the project.

Attacks on shipping in the Strait of Hormuz have ^{to bring to an end (forcefully, completely)} practically halted ^{almost completely (~90%)} trade along the narrow channel, which carries nearly one-fifth of global oil shipments, along with large volumes of commercial goods.

Don't stop now, you're practically finished!

caused by something else
(the main problem)

The reason why the subject is doing the action

Faced with longer transit times and knock-on delays to humanitarian deliveries, the UN agency and partners have increasingly used suppliers and transit ^{paths/routes} corridors through Turkey, Egypt, Jordan and Pakistan, while making greater use of overland routes between the United Arab Emirates and the eastern Mediterranean coastal region.

To make greater use of something:

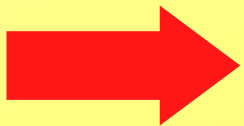

You need to make greater use of the marketing department.

To use something:

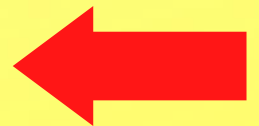

You need to use the marketing department more.

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

to block on purpose to prevent people/things from entering/leaving

Trump says US will blockade the Strait of Hormuz

blah-kaid

noun

Protesters formed a blockade and stopped cars from entering the street.

Protesters tried to blockade the street.

verb

After a diplomatic team led by US Vice-President JD Vance tried, and failed, to reach a negotiated agreement to end the war with Iran on Saturday, President Donald Trump announced plans to block the Strait of Hormuz.

adjective

/blockade

How did the negotiations go? <- noun

- We negotiated last week but we couldn't reach an agreement. <- verb

- We failed to reach a negotiated agreement. <- adjective

The US military Central Command announced that the naval blockade would stop all ships travelling to or from Iranian ports.

relating to the navy noun

"I vow to take this man as my husband..." <- wedding vows
I made a vow to protect my family.
I vowed to protect my family.

Tehran has vowed to retaliate against any military vessels in the strait. "Iran is not a place that can be contained with tweets and imaginary blockade plans," the government added.

strongly promise/publicly state to take negative action, in response to negative action

all ships/boats

limited/controlled

The team retaliated after their star player was pushed.
Don't retaliate, you'll only make things worse!
Your retaliation will only make things worse. <- noun

The Strait of Hormuz

A narrow strip of water between Iran and Oman has once again become the centre of global economic anxiety.

That question on our survey is a chokepoint.
Don't take that route. The bridge is a chokepoint.

The Strait of Hormuz, one of the world's most critical energy chokepoints, is facing fresh disruption risks as tensions escalate between Iran on one side and the United States and Israel on the other.

a point in a system where the flow can be slowed strong emotions

rise, increase

I could feel the tension as soon as I walked into the boardroom.
The tension was visible on their faces.

The situation has raised alarm across energy markets, governments and investors because of the strait's outsized role in global oil and gas trade.

Oil topped $100 a barrel again on Sunday, as the blockade threatens to further disrupt the global economy and keep gas prices elevated.

The temperature will top 30c today!

Are there any questions?
(I answer questions and then ask)
Are there any further questions?

The conflict has become a test of wills – of Iran's ability to endure continued US and Israeli attacks versus Trump's tolerance for the economic and political pain the war has produced.

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

Did you hear that noise? What on earth was that?

phrase to express confusion, shock, disbelief

What on earth is going on with oil prices?

What's going on with Jennifer? She hasn't posted a video in days!

Keep Posting!

I rarely ____ Jennifer's videos.

opposite: usually

The price of oil rarely makes it into dinner table conversation.

The price of oil is not something people usually discuss at dinner.

But over the last two weeks it has dominated headlines, with huge and unusual ris^{increases} and falls^{decreases} starting to feel like the new norm^{normal}.

_____ is the new norm (in my family, among my team).

Doing Something

Oil (on the stock market) one third (1/3)
It is currently trading over a third higher than before the conflict began, pushed up by air strikes on shipping and energy infrastructure and the effective closure of the key Strait of Hormuz, a vital waterway that carries a fifth of global oil supplies.

large, sudden changes (both increases and decreases)
There were wild swings in the price on Monday, which was described by the BBC's economics editor Faisal Islam as the most volatile day of oil trading in history.

Economics - area of study/field

Economist - job title.

The vast majority of oil is traded for delivery at a future date, says Lindsay James, investment strategist at Quilter, and prices are rising now due to concerns about supplies in the months ahead.

intensifier - ~80+ percent because of (casual) days, weeks, years

Before the US and Israeli strikes on Iran, oil had been trading at about $71 a barrel, but prices rose sharply as soon as the conflict began.

past perfect continuous approximately per increased past of "rise"

Call me as soon as you get home.
As soon as you get home, call me.

Comments from world leaders have contributed significantly to price fluctuations.

changes (both up and down)

For example, when Qatar's energy minister said he expected all oil and gas exporters in the Gulf to stop production within days, this pushed oil prices to a two-year high.

companies/people that export

adjective

his comments caused oil prices to increase to a two-year high.

But then US President Donald Trump described the war as "very complete, pretty much", raising hopes the conflict would not be drawn-out. In response, the oil price went into freefall and by the end of Monday it had fallen by nearly $30 from the peak seen earlier in the day.

longer than it needs to be decrease quickly/dramatically

the highest price

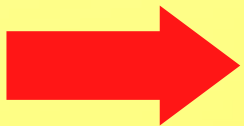

The movie was good, but the ending was drawn-out.

only/barely

We are not yet two weeks into the war between the US, Israel and Iran. We do not know how long the conflict will last, or how significant its impact will be.

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

100 Adjectives to Describe People and Personality

Click Here to Watch the YouTube Lesson

ADJECTIVE	DEFINITION	EXAMPLE
Adaptable	able or willing to change to suit different conditions.	I can easily work on many different types of projects. I'm very adaptable.
Adept (at something or doing something)	having a natural ability to do something that needs skill.	I'm very adept at using SAP.
Adventurous	willing to try new or difficult things.	We're looking for someone who's adventurous because this position requires travelling all over the world.
Affectionate	showing feelings of liking or love.	She gave me an affectionate farewell.
Ambitious	having a strong wish to be successful, powerful, or rich.	I'm attracted to ambitious men.
Artistic	able to create or enjoy art.	Would you describe yourself as artistic?
Assertive	having confidence and not being frightened to say what they want or believe.	I need to work on being more assertive.
Attentive	Being very helpful and taking care of others.	I try to be very attentive to my students.
Authentic	real, true, or what people say it is.	Sometimes being authentic around others is hard.
Approachable	friendly and easy to talk to.	My goal is for all my students to feel that I'm very approachable.
Balanced	considering all sides or opinions equally.	Even though she's a democrat, she's very balanced.
Bright	intelligent and quick to learn.	My students are all very bright!
Broad-minded	willing to accept many different types of behaviour, beliefs, or choices in other people.	Being broad-minded is a necessary characteristic when you work with a diverse group of people.
Candid	honest and telling the truth, especially about something difficult or painful.	To be candid with you, I left my job because I didn't get along with my boss.
Cheerful	happy and positive.	I try to surround myself with cheerful people.
Chill (informal)	relaxed, not worried or anxious.	As I get older, I become more and more chill.

100 Adjectives to Describe People and Personality

Click Here to Watch the YouTube Lesson

Clever	having or showing the ability to learn and understand things quickly and easily.	She's a very clever student.
Communicative	willing to talk to people and give them information.	Did you notice that Julie wasn't very communicative at the meeting today?
Compassionate	feeling or showing sympathy and sadness for the suffering or bad luck of others, and wanting to help them.	She's a compassionate reporter.
Competitive	wanting very much to win or be more successful than other people.	I'm very competitive, so a commission-only position is perfect for me.
Charismatic	being able to influence others easily; being able to attract attention and admiration.	If you want to win the election, you need to be more charismatic.
Considerate	caring about and respectful of others	It was very considerate of you to change the meeting time because of my appointment.
Constructive	intended to help someone or improve understanding, performance	Can I give you some constructive criticism?
Coy	intentionally keeping something secret, in a way to increase interest or attention	She's being very coy about the party.
Courageous	the ability to control your fear in a dangerous or difficult situation.	It was very courageous of you to quit your job and go back to school in your 40s!
Creative	producing or using original and unusual ideas.	We're looking for someone who's very creative.
Curious	interested in learning about people or things around you.	Being curious is a great quality when you're learning a language.
Dependable	deserving of trust or confidence.	My assistant is very dependable.
Determined	wanting to do something very much and not allowing anyone or any difficulties to stop you.	If you're determined, you'll become fluent.
Direct	someone who says what they think in a very honest way without worrying about other people's opinions.	I like how our CEO is very direct, even when delivering bad news.
Dynamic	having a lot of ideas and enthusiasm; energetic and forceful.	Has anyone ever told you that you're very dynamic?
Easygoing	relaxed and not easily upset or worried.	My new manager is way more easygoing than my last one.

100 Adjectives to Describe People and Personality

Click Here to Watch the YouTube Lesson

Eclectic	consisting of different types, methods, styles, etc.	I work with an eclectic group of students in the Finally Fluent Academy.
Emotional	having and expressing strong feelings.	John become very emotional at his retirement party.
Energetic	having or involving a lot of energy.	Even though she's almost 80, my grandmother is extremely energetic!
Enthusiastic	a feeling of interest in a particular subject or activity and an eagerness to be involved in it.	I love how enthusiastic you are about our new plan!
Extroverted	an energetic person who enjoys being with other people.	Although I'm not very extroverted, I love working in sales.
Exuberant	very energetic and showing the happiness of being alive.	She's an exuberant speaker!
Fearless	free from fear.	Good negotiators need to be fearless.
Flexible	able to change or be changed easily according to the situation.	My schedule is very flexible next week.
Forgiving	willing to forgive easily.	I'm thankful I have a forgiving boss.
Fruitful	producing good results.	He had a fruitful career as a lawyer.
Frank	honest, sincere, and telling the truth, even when this might be awkward or make other people uncomfortable.	Thank you for being frank with me.
Fun-loving	liking to enjoy yourself and have fun rather than liking serious things.	Although I'm the CEO of a fortune 500-company, I'm also very fun-loving.
Gregarious	liking to be with other people.	Being gregarious is an important quality of a nurse.
Genuine	real and exactly what it appears to be.	Her speech was genuine.
Honorable	honest and fair.	She's an honorable boss and I respect her decision.
Humble	having or showing a modest or low estimate of one's own importance.	Although she makes $2 million a year, she's very humble.
Handy	skillful with the hands or with using tools, especially when making or repairing things.	Now that I own a house, I need to become handy.

100 Adjectives to Describe People and Personality

Click Here to Watch the YouTube Lesson

Imaginative	good at thinking of new, original, and clever ideas.	Komal is an imaginative designer.
Inquisitive	eager to know a lot about people or things.	I love when my students are inquisitive about my lessons.
Impeccable	perfect, with no problems or bad parts.	Silvia gave an impeccable performance.
Intuitive	an ability to understand or know something immediately based on your feelings rather than facts.	I'm very intuitive when it comes to hiring.
Ingenious	very intelligent and skillful.	The way you handled that situation was ingenious.
Inviting	encouraging you to feel welcome.	The new HR manager is very inviting.
Jubilant	feeling or expressing great happiness, especially because of a success.	The fans were jubilant after the game.
Keen	very interested, eager, or wanting something very much.	She's very keen. She's already followed up with me about the position.
Kind-hearted	one who likes other people a lot and always wants to help them.	My doctor is very kind-hearted.
Lively	full of energy and enthusiasm; interesting and exciting.	The team is so lively today!
Logical	reasonable and based on good judgment.	You made a logical decision.
Loyal	providing support and friendship in all situations.	Kirk is our most loyal manager. He's been with the company for 20 years.
Laudable	deserving praise, even if there is little or no success.	Your actions are laudable.
Mature	behaving in a way that shows they are well developed emotionally.	Although Sharok is only an intern, he's very mature.
Meticulous	very careful and with great attention to every detail.	As a quality assurance professional, I need to be very meticulous.
Marvelous	extremely good.	They did a marvelous job for the new client.
Nimble	quick and exact either in movement or thoughts.	His nimble hands are perfect for repairing antiques.
Open-minded	willing to consider ideas and opinions that are new or different to your own.	Doctors are becoming more and more open-minded.
Optimistic	the quality of being full of hope and emphasizing the good parts of a situation,	I'm optimistic that I'll pass my oral exam.

100 Adjectives to Describe People and Personality

Click Here to Watch the YouTube Lesson

	or a belief that something good will happen.
Out-of-this-world	superb, extraordinary	Your design skills are out-of-this-world!
Outgoing	friendly and energetic and finding it easy and enjoyable to be with others.	Now that I feel confident with my English, I'm more outgoing at work.
Pensive	quiet and thinking seriously.	Julie was very pensive during our presentation.
Proactive	taking action to make changes yourself rather than reacting to things that happen.	One of my best qualities is that I'm very proactive.
Perceptive	very good at noticing and understanding things that many people do not notice.	We really appreciate your perceptive comments.
Persistent	continue doing something in a determined way even when facing difficulties or opposition.	When I'm solving a problem, I'm very persistent.
Practical	able to provide effective solutions to problems.	Her ideas are very interesting and practical.
Punctual	arriving, doing something, or happening at the expected or correct time; not late.	Thankfully the contractors are very punctual.
Qualified	having the standard of skill, knowledge, or ability that is necessary for doing or being something.	Ronnie is the most qualified accountant I know.
Riveting	extremely interesting.	The speakers at the conference were all riveting.
Renowned	famous for something	Maya Angelou is a renowned poet.
Ravishing	extremely beautiful	You look ravishing in that dress.
Reverent	showing great respect and admiration.	The reverent crowd became silent when she appeared on stage.
Self-reliant	the ability to depend on yourself or your own abilities.	When you work remotely, you need to be self-reliant.
Sensible	having or using good judgment.	I like working with Hamid. He's very sensible.
Savvy	practical knowledge and ability.	She's very savvy when it comes to marketing.
Supportive	giving encouragement and approval.	As a teacher, I try to be very supportive of all my students.
Sincere	honest; not false or invented.	Her apology was sincere.

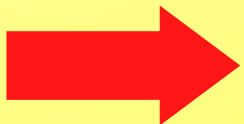

100 Adjectives to Describe People and Personality

Click Here to Watch the YouTube Lesson

Straightforward	honest and not likely to hide their opinions.	I love how straightforward Shirley is.
Sage	wise, especially because of long experience that comes with age.	The consultant has 20 years of experience so we can trust is sage advice.
Steadfast	staying the same for a long time; not changing or losing purpose.	Jose is a steadfast assistant.
Tenacious	unwilling to accept defeat or stop doing or having something.	Felicity is a tenacious student.
Thrilling	very exciting.	Fabio's plan for the company is thrilling!
Tender	gentle, loving, or kind.	It's important to be tender when you're delivering bad news.
Tactful	careful not to say or do anything that could upset someone.	Yusef quit in a very tactful way.
Upbeat	positive and with hope for the future.	Marie is very upbeat about the proposal.
Unrelenting	extremely determined; never weakening or ending.	I appreciate my parents' unrelenting support.
Versatile	able to change easily from one activity to another or able to be used for many different purposes.	Brad Pitt is a versatile actor.
Vibrant	energetic, exciting, and full of enthusiasm.	I love how vibrant my work environment is.
Witty	using words in an amusing and intelligent way.	My pilot was very witty.
Youthful	having the qualities that are typical of young people.	Her youthful enthusiasm makes coming to work more enjoyable.
Zealous	enthusiastic and eager.	I appreciate how zealous she is.

FREE SPEAKING GUIDE

Use this guide to gain the skills and confidence to speak in English in public in any situation.

DOWNLOAD NOW \(FREE\)

